AN ACT

To repeal section 162.856, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the governing council of certain special school districts.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 162.856, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 162.856, to read as follows:

162.856. 1. In each special school district with a population in excess of one hundred thousand persons, there is hereby established a "Governing Council" which shall consist of one member of the board of education of each school district, all or a portion of which is contained in the special school district. The first governing council shall be formed on or before May 31, 1996, or the effective date of this section, May 24, 1996, whichever is later.

(1) Each member of the governing council shall be elected by the board of education of the school district on which the member serves. The board of education of a school district within the special school district may elect a new member to the governing council to fill a vacancy from that district and may replace the existing district member on the governing council at any time, upon providing written notice of the change to the secretary of the governing council.

(2) The members of the governing council of a special school district in a county of the first classification with a charter form of government and a population of more than one million inhabitants shall serve two-year terms that begin June first. Each governing council member may serve up to two terms. No member who has served for four or more years by June 1, 2002, shall continue to serve after the effective date of this section nor shall any such member serve as governing council member until at least three other members of the board of education of the school district on which the member serves have

19 served as governing council members for at least one term each or for a total of at least six
20 years served by other school board members on his or her own local board. Each board
21 of education shall elect a successor member for any member whose term has been ended
22 pursuant to this subdivision within thirty days of the effective date of this section.

23         2. The governing council of a special school district shall have the following powers and 24 duties:

25             (1) To establish such rules and procedures as may be necessary to carry out its powers
26 and duties as provided in this section;

27             (2) To elect a chairman, a secretary and such other officers as it deems necessary;

28             (3) To review and give final approval of the annual budget of the special school district
29 subject to the following provisions:

30             (a) For the 1996-97, 1997-98 and 1998-99 school years, the board of education of a
31 special school district shall submit its proposed budget to the governing council no later than 32 April first prior to the beginning of the school year, except that, for the 1996-97 school year only,
33 the board of education shall submit its proposed budget to the governing council no later than 34 thirty days after May 24, 1996. The governing council shall then either accept this budget
35 proposal or make any amendments it deems appropriate and adopt the annual budget as amended
36 no later than sixty days after receipt of the proposed budget;

37             (b) For the 1999-2000 school year and each school year thereafter:

38                 a. The board of education of a special school district shall develop, in cooperation with 39 the governing council, its annual budget which shall, following adoption by the board, be
40 submitted to the governing council no later than April first prior to the beginning of the school
41 year for final approval;

42                 b. The governing council shall accept or reject the proposed budget by May first prior 43 to the beginning of the school year. If rejected, the proposed budget shall be returned to the 44 board of education no later than May first with a statement setting forth the reasons for the 45 rejection;

46                 c. The governing council and the board of education shall resolve any differences
47 regarding approval of the budget by June thirtieth prior to the beginning of the school year;

48             (4) To annually review, conduct public hearings on and approve a rolling five-year plan
49 for the operation and management of the district which shall be annually developed by the board
50 of education of the special school district. The plan shall contain, but not be limited to, the 51 following:

52                 (a) The delivery of services;

53                 (b) The structure, governance, administration and financial management of the district;

54                 (c) Cooperation with component school districts; and

55 (d) Responsiveness to the needs and concerns of the citizens of the special school
56 district.

58 The plan shall be first approved by the governing council on or before December 31, 1996, and 59 shall be reviewed and approved annually on or before December thirty-first of each following 60 year;

61 (5) To consult with the parental advisory committee established in section 162.858;

62 (6) To hold at least four meetings per school year and such other meetings, called by the 63 chairman of the council, a majority of the council members or the board of education of the 64 special school district, as may be necessary to transact business and fulfill the duties established
65 under this section. All meetings of the governing council shall be open to the public, pursuant 66 to chapter 610, RSMo. Minutes shall be kept of all proceedings and shall be a public record;

67 (7) To compel the attendance of the superintendent, members of the board of education,
68 or any employee of the special school district and the production of papers, records, testimony,
69 and other materials relating to the special school district, and to administer oaths to witnesses
70 and take testimony under oath;

71 (8) To conduct a study to determine whether a plan should be developed whereby the 72 local school districts assume greater responsibility and authority in the education of children with 73 disabilities.

74 3. Unless a greater majority is otherwise required, all actions of the governing council 75 shall require a majority of the authorized members who represent at least fifty percent of the 76 population of the district. Population figures shall be adjusted based on the latest census data 77 available.
